

Questions for a more thorough inquiry

- How would you describe the political atmosphere of the campus?
- Which departments have the best reputations or are considered the most difficult?
- What is the most common complaint from students?
- Do students not get into certain classes because they're filled?
- How would you describe the Greek life?
- How would you describe the general character of the student body?
- Which majors spend the most time studying?
- Which majors spend the least?
- What would you describe as your colleges best thing?
- How do AK students get there and what about typical airfare costs?
- Is there a somewhat quick way to see an estimate of how much or what kind, if any, of aid I might receive?
- How would you describe the academic environment?
- What do most students do on Friday nights, Saturdays, or Sundays-do students stay on campus?
- Why do students select this college?
- What is the best thing about your school?
- What is the glue that binds the social life?
- Describe the types of students that thrive there.
- Describe the type of student that is most unhappy and ends up transferring.
- Tell me about _____ (fill in your area of extracurricular interest)
(i.e. intramurals, drama, singing, band, orchestra, service, government, etc.)
- How are roommates chosen?
- Are there any special interest floors/dorms?
- How "wired" is the campus?
- How much freedom to freshman have in choosing classes?
- Who teaches introductory courses-professors or grad students?
- How are students advised?
- Tell me about study abroad opportunities. Does it cost more? What percentage of students study abroad?
- Will any of my high school courses (A.P. Or dual enrollment/college classes count for credit?
- What classes are required for my major?
- What other classes are required outside my major?
- Special circumstances?
- What are the most common grants or scholarships for out of state students and how many students receive them?
- What is the criteria for the grants/scholarships?
- About how many freshman from Alaska attend each year?
- What percentage of students come from out of state?